They all plead not guilty to the indictment against them.
The defendants deny any negligence on their part and claim that the plaintiff

caused the accident by her own negligence. Case in progress.

H. D. Peck for plaintiff; Philip Kumler for The City.

SUPERIOR. Before Judge Harmon - Helen Merkel against the City of Cincinnati. This is a suit for $5,000 damages for injuries afleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff while driving her wagon along Central avenue, near Clarkson street. The plaintif alleges that by reason of the city's negli-gence her wagon was upset ou the 29th of January, 1878, while she was on her way to murket, causing her to be thrown out and breaking her collar bone and bruising her head and face; that there was a hote in the street which caused the accident, and city was negligent in not repairing it.
